Debby, glad we connected via phone. As we discussed, and as Cheryl and I discussed around 3pm, we are now targeting a Tuesday release. This will give Rick a little more time to review, and will also build time in for Jackie's review since she needs to review + send it to you/OPP IO. CSB will keep the write-ups moving forward as quickly as we can: right now they are being reviewed by the technical team.

Thanks for all that you do and for working together on this.

If you gave it to me right now, it's unlikely I could get Rick to review today. He is booked solid. Rick and I will both be here tomorrow morning though.

Please send me whatever you have now, so I can at least get started looking at them.

The sooner the better. I need time to have Wendy review before Monday so I'd say tomorrow morning would be the latest.

Are folks still working on the web as well?

We're working on this as quickly as we can, though it needs to go through review here in OPP as well. Is COB today a hard and fast deadline or would by tomorrow morning be doable?

Hi Cheryl, thank you for the info. We're checking with the subject matter experts re: draft webpages (they have already been put together) and getting background paragraphs together; we'll get back to you shortly.

Wendy cleared this. OPA said it can go on Monday. Note I changed the last paragraph to reflect the FRN. You'll need to fill in the length of the comment period.

Wendy wants background Qs and As on what each BE says. Just a short paragraph or two for each one should be fine. Can you get those to me by COB tomorrow?

Where are we on the web? Are the documents loaded and ready to go? Do you have test pages?

Finally, Angela has the FRN for this.
